

Mrs. Murray has been a part of the Galileo faculty for the past 11 years in the capacity of Assistant Principal and School Counselor. Mrs. Murray has an innate passion for helping others and the Galileo School affords her the ability to hone and exercise this trait. Mrs. Murray completed her undergraduate degree at South Dakota State University. In addition, she completed her Graduate work in Educational Leadership and School Counseling at The University of Central Florida. When Mrs. Murray is not at Galileo, she enjoys spending time with her family, working out, running, road trips, and sightseeing. Mrs. Murray is eager to continue enriching the student experience at Galileo and considers the school to be her “home away from home.”
