

Mrs. Howard was born and raised in Boston, Massachusetts. She is a graduate of the University of Massachusetts-Amherst with a B.A. in Psychology and a minor in Education. While living in Massachusetts, she earned her Masters of Arts in Teaching Special Education. As a former student-athlete and college coach, Mrs. Howard enjoys helping her students achieve their goals and dreams through multiple means of learning. She spent her first year of teaching at Skyway as an Intervention teacher but moved back into the classroom last year and loves teaching 3rd grade! In Mrs. Howard's free time, she enjoys spending time with her husband (Coach Howard) and their 8-month-old daughter (Zoey), running and going to the beach.